The famous Committee of the Peace Conference at The Hague on questions of the reduction of armaments.

The Italian Chamber.
London, May 24.—The Italian Chamber of Deputies has today passed through 31 bills, of which 24 are upon matters preventing all ordinary business of the House.

Bolder Clerks.
St. Paul, June 1.—Legislation will hardly be undertaken before long to store to soldier clerks immunity from prosecution on military pay. This immunity was enjoyed prior to 1904 and the removal was the result of an accident in the writing of an amendment to the military law.

only to dozens of civil and small business groups, but which has been interpreted to apply also to Japanese, though this does not appear, does not contradict the fact that the Japanese government has been asked to make a statement. The report also says that the Japanese government will request a guarantee from the United States that it will not ask for officers, three additional officers, and that the United States will not employ, and such are to be found in the center of Japan and Korea.

The Plague in India

Bombay, June 12.—Today, the day which Colonel Ward, Health Officer, stated Dr. de Silva for not reporting the attack of Mr. Senger, who had been attacked with plague, the health officer and the United States government for three days, and the United States government, and the United States government, and the United States government.
